Main information

Scheduled Date
15.02.2010 – 19.02.2010

Location
Ringberg Castle, Conference Site of the Max Planck Society

As in each year, the faculty is eager to get to know the recent work of all IMPRS students. The aim of the workshop is to provide feedback to all participants. Hence, each presentation should give a brief introduction into your thesis project and, e.g., related problems. In this case presenters should explain where they see difficulties for their work and where they need further input.

Your presentation should not be longer than 30 minutes, and may well be shorter. This will ensure sufficient time for your feedback (approx. 15 minutes). The shorter the presentations are, the more time the other participants have to provide feedback.

Basically there will be:
2 early morning talks
1 coffee break in the morning
2 talks
1 lunch break between 12.00-14.00: 3 courses
2 early afternoon talks
1 coffee break in the afternoon
3 afternoon talks
1 dinner 18.30 – 19.30: 2 courses
